Harnessing the Power of Harmony:

A Guide to Vastu Shastra by Adhunik Decodeive

At Adhunik Decodeive, we understand that the spaces we inhabit can greatly influence our well-being. That's why we embrace Vastu Shastra, an ancient Indian science of architecture that teaches us how to create environments that nurture and support us. By thoughtfully aligning our living and working spaces with the five natural elements—earth, sky, fire, water, and air—we can foster harmony and promote health, prosperity, and happiness in our lives. Your comfort and well-being are at the heart of what we do.

Practical Applications of Vastu Shastra:

- Home Design: Optimize layouts and decor for a balanced living space.
- Office Design: Enhance productivity and morale through Vastu-aligned layouts.
- Commercial Spaces: Attract customers and boost sales with inviting and prosperous designs

Key Benefits of Vastu Shastra:

- Improved Physical and Mental Health
- Enhanced Financial Prosperity
- Stronger Relationships
- Spiritual Growth

Whether you're building a new home or renovating an existing one, incorporating Vastu Shastra principles can transform your space into a haven of peace and prosperity.

A Few Vastu Tips

For Living Room

- Place the living room in the east or north for morning sunlight and positive vibrations.
- The door should be in the north or east.
- Use square or rectangle-shaped furniture and avoid a heavy chandelier at the centre.
- Southern and western corners are suitable for furniture placement.
- Sofa placement is ideal in the south, avoiding L-shaped sofas.
- TV can be placed in the east or north.

For Kitchen

- Ideal locations are southeast or northwest.
- Avoid the northeast, mid-north, mid-west, southwest, mid-south, and centre of the house.
- The cooking platform should not touch the eastern or northern wall.
- Face east while cooking.
- The stove should not be visible from the outside.
- Maintain maximum distance between the cooking hob and sink.
- The kitchen sink should be in the northeast and the dishwasher in the northwest.

For Bedroom

- Master bedroom should be in the southwest for heaviness and ideal for the head of the house.
- While placing the bed, ensure the occupant sleeps with the head pointing towards the south.
- Southwest is not suitable for children, guests, or servant rooms.
- Sleep with head towards south, east, or west, never in the north.
- Avoid any beam crossing over the bed.
- Bed should be on the south wall, or if not, keep it at least 4 feet away from the walls.

For Kid's Room

- Children's room should be in the northwest or west.
- Their bed can be placed in the south, west, or northwest corner.
- Avoid any sharp-edged furniture in their room.
- The study table should face east or north.
- Colours should be light and soothing.
- Display images of nature and positivity.

For Washroom

West or northwest is suitable for a bathroom.

- Avoid northeast and southwest directions.
- Place the bathroom fittings in the north or east.
- Keep the geyser in the southeast.
- The mirror should be on the north or east wall.
- Use light colours for the walls.

For Colour

- Use light colours like white, yellow, blue, or green for a peaceful living room in the southwest.
- Soft pink and orange are suitable kitchen colours, avoiding black and red.
- Light colours like pink, cream, or off-white are recommended for bedrooms in the southwest.
- Opt for soft pastel shades for the kid's room to create a cheerful environment.
- In washrooms, light colours are preferable for a fresh and clean ambience.
- Choose light colours for office interiors to promote a vibrant and positive atmosphere.
